Important Work for the Present Time! HISTORY OF CUBA: ITS PAST AND PRESENT. BY MATURIN M. BALLOU.

BY MATURIN M. BALLOU.

CIVING a Political, Historical, and Statistical account of the Island, from its first discovery to the present day. To be comprised in one volume, duouecimo. Finely illustrated with engravings, from original drawings taken on the Island.

In depicting the manners, customs, peculiarities, products, and local characteristics of the Island of Cuba, the author has been guided by personal observation, aided by copious notes taken on the spot, and among the people he describes.

The work is fresh in its character, and brings the history of the Island up to the present hour, showing in a clear, impartial light, its great wealth and political importance, the extraordinary oppression and taxation under which it has suffered, the fertility of its soll, and the glory of its fruits and flowers, with a statistical record of its staple productions, and a history of its slave trade and slave population.

Mr. Ballou was for some time a resident of Cuba, and has been a careful student in the history of the Island.—Sat. Eve Gazette.

WHAT THE NEW YORK CITY FOLKS SAY OF DR. McLANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE.

By This is to certify that I am well acquainted with a man, fifty years of age, for many years a resident of this city, who has been at times extremely ill, but could not tell from what cause, unless it was worms. He told his attending physician his suspi cions, but the physician at once ridiculad the idea, and refused to attend him any longer. His son then mentioned Dr. McLane's Vermifuge, and asked him if he would take it; his reply was, I must take something to get relief, or die.

They at once procured a bottle of Dr. McLane's celebrated Vermifuge, and took one half at one dose. The result was, he passed upwards of three quarts of acoress, cut up in every form. He got well immediately, and is now enjoying most excellent health; and, like the good Samaritan of cld, is endeavoring to relieve his unfortunate neighbors. He makes his business to hunt up and select all cases similar to his own, that may be given over by the regular physicians, and induces them to try Dr McLane's Ver-mitage. So far he has induced more than twenty ns to take the Vermifuge, and in every case with the most happy results. He is well satisfied that Dr. McLare's Vermifuge is far superior to any other known remedy, and that, if more generally known. would not fail to save many valuable lives.

For further particulars, inquire of Mrs. Hardie, 124j Cannon street, New York city. P. S. The above valuable remedy, also Dr. Me-Lane's celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all Bastman's Infallible Sick Headache Remedy.

THIS preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D., of Lynn, Mass., has been used in private practice THIS preparation, by E. P. EASTMAN, M. D., of Lynn, Mass., has been used in private practice for the last four years, with the greatest success. A radical cure has been effected in every instance where the directions have been strictly followed and persevered in. It is now given to the public with the full confidence that it will do all that is claimed for it, and prove itself, upon fair trial, an infallible Sick Headsche Remedy.

It is sufe and pleasant to the taste, it brings immediate relief, and all who test its curative virtues rejoice in the removal of pain, and marved at its power in alleviating so general, and often so fatal, a scourge. The following is from D. C. Baker, Esq., Mayor of Lynn, and President of the Howard Banking Company, Boston:

Dr. E. P. Eastman.

Dran Sin: A member of my family—a daughter, ten years of age—was afflicted with the sick headache, and we tried various remedies without success. When, however, you administered to her your "Headache Powders," we found them to be very beneficial, and, in fact, restored her to health.

I should, without hesitation, recommend them to those afflicted; and I beg to assure you, that I fully appreciate their value.

Respectfully yours,

D. C. Baker.

LYNN, August 6, 1853.

Dr. E. P. Eastman.

My Dean Sir: I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you my high appreciation of the efficiency and value of your Sick Headache Remedy. I have been afflicted, since my childhood, with very severe turns of sick headache, and have tried various remedies which have been prescribed, but found no considerable relief until I tried your remedy, which, I am happy to say, has almost entirely cared me. Several of my neighbors and friends have tried your medicine, and in every instance it has entirely relieved or greatly mollified the disease.

Faithfully yours,

To those persons who may visit Washington, and are in want of a boot that cannot be excelled, either in quality of workmanship, we would call their attention to the card of Henry Janney, to be found under the head of "Washington." A handsome and neatly-made boot is not at all times a source of pleasure to the wearer, but often one of extreme torture; this is caused by the bungling manner in which the boot is fitted to the foot. Mr. Janney has devoted much of his time in studying the construction of the human foot, in order to ascertain how a boot should be cut and fitted, that will be perfectly easy to all parts of the foot. In this he has succeeded, so that it matters not what may be the shape of, or the number of come on the foot, his boot is perfectly easy. Thus he has ambined beauty with comfort.

THE CONFLICT OF AGES!

BY DR EDWARD BEECHER. This Remarkable Work has reached its Fifth Edition, in the brief space of Four Months! A success unprecedented in Theological Pub-

A success unprecedented in Theological Publications!

A N impression has already been produced by this A masterly treatise, the most profound, wide reaching, and permanent.

It is perfectly manifest to all competent observers, that we are upon the eve of a theological discussion, the most comprehensive, radical, and portentous, the world has ever seen. To this discussion this book leads the way, with a momentum irrestible. There is not a question in Theology which is not destined to come up for a new and thorough settlement in the light of this final development.

All those who have Theological doubts and difficulties should examine the solution this work affords. Those who have no doubts, but who wish to study the history of opinions in the past, and to keep pace with the developments of opinion in the future, will grievously our if they neglect to make themselves familiar with this book. It contains the seeds of the thinkings and debatings of the next hundred years.

The reception of this work by the The-logical press of the country, has been significant. Equally declining to accept his conclusion, they do it on opposite and contradictory grounds. One half of the Theological press endorses the major premise of the argument, and denies the minor. The other half endorsement on the most powerful kind.

As regards the ability of the work, and its claims on the attention of all, the following extracts may suffice:

From the Princeton Repertory—Old School Orthodox.

From the Princeton Repertury—Old School Orthodox.
It is characterized by great ability, by an earnest spirit, by frankness, candor, and courtesy. It has a special interest for us. We hall it as an ally. The author shutshis readers up to the choice between Orthodoxy and the doctrine of Pre-Existence.

Prom the Universalist Quarterly and General Review, Jan., 1854.

We have the novel spectacle of a man clinging with a masterly grasp to all the fundamentals of Orthodoxy, * yet dealing it a blow teneath which it reels.

It would be difficult to find within the limits of a hundred pages are tractice.

hundred pages any treatise or essay that can compare in importance with this analysis (B. iv) of Orthodox doctrines. Dr. Beecher has struck upon the right principle in his theory of typical interpretation, in the fifth of Romans.

This work has caused a great commotion among the D D.'s in our land. It merits their attention.

The most significant work on Theology which has appeared of late.

In many respects, this volume is one of the most curious, as well as one of the most suggestive, productions of modern American Theology. Philadelphia Presbyterian Quarterly, New School.

It is a story and yet a sermon. Taking the little Vara by the hand, and leading her through the corridors of an eventful life, it leaves upon the mind a genial and lasting impression, which will prove of service. We hope to see it circulated widely.—Buffalo Express.

We predict for it an immense sale, and venture to announce the author as a worthy addition to the few distinguished American authors. As a work of art, we place it high. Independently of any aim of plot, the language is both chaste and ornate, frequently pathetic, often humorous. The characters are drawn with great skill, and we can find originals in our mind, who seem to be here carefully pictured.—Nevark Dasile.

"THE WEST HIS NO LITERATURE!" GENIUS OF THE WEST, CINCISNATI, OHIO.

COATES-KINNEY, HOWARD DURHAM, Editors. THE THIRD VOLUME OF THE GENIUS OF THE WEST commences with the July number, 1854 This Poriodical was established for the pur-lose of encouraging and introducing to the public ORIGINAL WESTERN LITERATURE.

ORIGINAL WESTERN LITERATURE.

"The West has no literature," was remarked by a prominent speaker in a public assembly, not a long time since. The West has a literature—a literature of her own—fresh, bold, vigorous, and beautiful—not refined into stupidity, not degenerated into obscenity—but looming up like her own mountains, fertile as her rich soil, attractive as her blooming prairies. It has been the object of the Genius to gather in the choicest productions of this literature, and to send them forth again, to encourage, to please, and to instruct. It is not surprising that the public have regarded this object with extraordinary favor—a favor which is evidenced by the remarkable success of the Genius of the West. It has elicited the attention and admiration of cultivated minds in all parts of the country. From South Carolina, from New England, from Oregon, from every quarter where it has become

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE FEATURES!

Foremost, he has had the good fortune to associate with him Prof. COATES, KINNEY, who has purchased an interest in the Genius, and will hereafter devote his whole attention to its pages. Among the poets and prose writers of the West, Mr. KINNEY is conspicuous in the foremost rank; and the enlistment of his pen in the editorial department cannot fail to excite a deeper and still wider interest in the minds of the reading public.

The typographical execution of the work has also been improved, and so arranged as to afford a much greater amount of reading matter, without any advance in price

New and valuable contributors have been engaged, whose contributions will enrich the pages of the new volume.

The proprietors being now established in a printing office of their own, it will be their object to extend the circulation of the Genius of the West everywhere, and they earnestly solicit the assistance of all who derive pleasure from literature, and especially of those who desire to encourage the growth of literature in the West, which shall command the respect of the world.

The Genius of the West is published monthly, royal cotave form, thirty-two pages, superior paper and transgradys and handsome cover. NEW AND ATTRACTIVE FEATURES!

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every style, all of the best qualities, and for which we shall have one price only.

We shall sell cheaper than we ever have done; and in having one price only (which, in our opinion, is the only fair and equitable way of doing business) we shall maintain our self-respect, which is above all price or success. Moreover, we expect to retain all the trade of those prompt customers who have made their purchases of us for some years past, and doubtless we shall have a large accession of new customers, who prefer to buy where one fair price only is asked.

We feel that our simple word is requisite only to satisfy our former customers that the one price system is the correct one, and to their advantage; and we do not hesitate to assert our belief that all candid and intelligent persons will, after an impartial examination of prices, fabric, and styles, give a one price store the preference. Those who are not judges of goods cannot fail to be impressed at once with the manifold and vast advantages to the purchaser resulting from the adoption in good faith of the one sulting from the adoption in good faith of the one price system; it necessarily insures low prices to the purchaser, for it becomes absolutely necessary to meet at the start all competition that can be offered in

Our scale of prices will be so low, and the profits so small, that we cannot and will not sell but for the cash or to customers who pay promptly. For those who purchase very largely, or to sell again, reductions will be made.

We abound in magazines and newspapers, suited to the wants and instes of all classes, yet the thirst for mental recreation and intelligence, which is one of the characteristics of our people, encourages us in the belief that another well-conducted publication will be amply sustained.

Competition, which hes been called "the life of trade," is now such in the periodical line, that, by the ordinary mode, it is a hazardous undertaking to the publisher to attempt, even with a large capital, to establish a magazine or paper. Not unfrequently, thousands of dollars are expended before it is made to yield a profit; and it has become a settled principle, that subscribers must be paid for, in one way or another. Periodicals are remunerative only when they have a large circulation, and Premiums are commonly given to increase subscription lists.

We design to furnish a handsomely-printed, hightoned, witty, entertaining, and instructive Quarto, (a suitable form for binding,) which in one year will comprise a large amount of useful information, and as a reflex of the times and a record of current events will be found worthy of preservation. Intending it to be, most amphatically, a paper for the people, we shall advocate their rights, their interests, their welfare; our motte being "the greatest good to the largest number."
